Year 3	As a historian:          Begin to use dates and historical terms to describe events          Begin to use a timeline within a specific time in history to set out the order things may have happened          Begin to recognise and quantify the different time periods that exist between different groups that invaded Britain          Place events, artefacts and historical figures on a timeline using dates          Begin to understand the concept of change over time, representing this, along with evidence, on a time line Understand and use appropriate historical vocabulary to communicate, including: dates, BC, AD, time period, change, ancient, century, decade Timebox          Be able to chose (with justifiable reason) items to add to the year group's timebox.          To categorise and order items within the year group's Timebox.	As a historian:          Begin to use evidence to ask questions and find answers to questions about the past          Begin to suggest suitable sources of evidence for historical enquiry          Use more than one source of evidence for historical enquiry in order to gain a more accurate understanding of history          Begin to recognise the part that archaeologists have had in helping us understand more about what happened in the past          Begin to use research skills in finding out facts about the time period I am studying          Begin to compare and contrast different forms of evidence in my research          Begin to research what it was like for specific people e.g. children, during the time period I am studying	As a historian:          Begin to give reasons why certain events happened as they did in history          Begin to talk about why certain people acted as they did in history          Begin to explain how events from the past have helped shape our lives today          Begin to appreciate why Britain would have been an important country to have invaded and conquered          Begin to describe changes that have happened in the locality of the school throughout history          Give a broad overview of what life was like in ..... Begin to compare some of the times studied with those of other areas of interest around the world          Begin to describe the social, cultural or religious diversity of past societies          Begin to describe the characteristic features of the past, including beliefs, attitudes and experiences of men, women and children          Begin to describe different accounts of an historical event, explaining some of the reasons why the accounts may differ          Talk about the causes and consequences of some of the main events and changes in history Use my English, Maths and Computing skills to communicate information about the past	Organisation and Communication          Communicate their knowledge through:          Discussion          Drawing pictures          Drama/role play          Making models          Writing          Using ICT Recall, select and organise historical information. Communicate knowledge and understanding

Year 4	As a historian: Use dates and historical terms to describe events Use a timeline within a specific time in history to set out the order things may have happened Begin to recognise and quantify the different time periods that exist between different groups that invaded Britain Place events, artefacts and historical figures on a timeline using dates Understand the concept of change over time, representing this, along with evidence, on a time line Understand and use appropriate historical vocabulary to communicate, including: dates, time period, era, change, chronology, ancient, century, decade Timebox Be able to choose (with justifiable reason) items to add to the year group's timebox. To categorise and order items within the year group's Timebox.	As a historian: Use evidence to ask questions and find answers to questions about the past Suggest suitable sources of evidence for historical enquiry Use more than one source of evidence for historical enquiry in order to gain a more accurate understanding of history Recognise the part that archaeologists have had in helping us understand more about what happened in the past Use my research skills in finding out facts about the time period I am studying Through my research, Compare and contrast different forms of evidence Research what it was like for men, women and children in a given period from the past and use different forms to present my findings	As a historian: Suggest why certain events happened as they did in history Suggest why certain people acted as they did in history Explain how events from the past have helped shape our lives today Begin to appreciate why Britain would have been an important country to have invaded and conquered Describe changes that have happened in the locality of the school throughout history Give a broad overview of life in Britain, e.g. under the Roman Empire, during the Stone Age Compare some of the times studied with those of other areas of interest around the world Describe the social, ethnic, cultural or religious diversity of past societies Describe the characteristic features of the past, including ideas, beliefs, attitudes and experiences of men, women and children Describe different accounts of an historical event, explaining some of the reasons why the accounts may differ Suggest causes and consequences of some of the main events and changes in history Use my English, Maths and Computing skills to a good standard to communicate information about the past	Organisation and Communication Communicate their knowledge through: Discussion Drawing pictures Drama/role play Making models Writing Using ICT Recall, select and organise historical information. Communicate knowledge and understanding

Year 5	As a historian:          Use dates and historical terms more accurately in describing events          Place features of historical events and people from past societies and periods in a chronological framework          Create timelines which outline the development of specific features, such as medicine; weaponry; transport, etc          Describe the main changes in a period of history (using terms such as: social, religious and cultural)          Identify periods of rapid change in history and begin to contrast them with times of relatively little change          Begin to understand the concepts of continuity and change over time, representing them, along with some evidence, on a time line          Explain the chronology of different time periods (local, British and world history) and how they relate to one another on a time line          Begin to make connections and contrasts between different time periods studied and talk about trends over time Understand and use appropriate historical vocabulary to communicate, including: dates, time period, era, chronology, continuity, change, century, decade Timebox          Be able to choose (with justifiable reason) items to add to the year group's timebox.          To categorise and order items within the year group's Timebox.	As a historian:          Devise historical questions about the period I am studying          Seek out and analyse range of evidence in order to justify claims about the past          Understand that no single source of evidence gives the full answer to questions about the past          Test out a hypothesis in order to answer a question          Appreciate how historical artefacts have helped us understand more about British lives in the present and past          Use some different sources of evidence to deduce information about the past          Select suitable sources of evidence, sometimes giving reasons for choices          Give a reason to support an historical argument          Identify propoganda and begin to show my understanding of it          Refine lines of enquiry as appropriate	As a historian:          Answer historical questions, using information and evidence that I have carefully considered and selected          Understand how our knowledge of the past is constructed from a range of sources          Describe with some detail any historical events from the different period/s I am studying/have studied          Make comparisons and contrasts between historical periods; explaining things that have changed and things which have stayed the same          Begin to appreciate that how we make decisions as a country has been through a Parliament for some time          Appreciate that significant events in history have helped shape the country we have today          Show an awareness of the concept of propoganda and how historians must understand the social context of evidence studied          Identify continuity and change in the history of the locality of the school          Give a broad overview of life in Britain and some major events from the rest of the world          Make connections, compare and contrast some of the times studied with those of the other areas of interest around the world          Describe the social, ethnic, cultural or religious diversity of past society          Describe the characteristic features of the past, including ideas, beliefs, attitudes and experiences of men, women and children          Explain how some aspects of history/historical events have had an impact elsewhere in the world Use my English, Maths and Computing skills to an exceptional standard to communicate information about the past.          Use original ways to present information and ideas	Organisation and Communication          Communicate their knowledge through:          Discussion          Drawing pictures          Drama/role play          Making models          Writing          Using ICT Recall, select and organise historical information. Communicate knowledge and understanding
