

Essential knowledge that pupils need to be educated citizens:

Promotion of fundamental British values.

Understanding of human feelings and emotion.

Developing the expression of personal views on moral and ethical issues.

Understanding and respect of diversity.

Awareness of bullying and anti-bullying strategies.

Access to cultures from other countries through the curriculum.

Promotion of equality.

Introducing them to the best that has been thought and said:

Use of the Picture News programme to consistently provide students with up-to-date examples of modern thought and issues.

Use of historical figures to explore key themes such as Rosa Parks, Nelson Mandela and Greta Thunberg.

Use of popular figures within society to investigate the themes through their words and actions.

Use of famous quotations to instigate thematical discussion.

Cultural Capital at St Stephen Churchtown Academy

PSHE

Community

Explicit links between local and wider community, reflecting on students place within that.

Explicit teaching of pupils responsibilities in given communities.

Exploration of British Values within the context of a given community.

Helping to engender an appreciation of human creativity and achievement

Use of the Picture News programme to consistently provide students with up-to-date examples of modern thought and issues.

Special, one-off lessons to commemorate historical or modern events. For example, the passing of Queen Elizabeth II, Black History Month or the Poppy Appeal.

Careers

Career based learning.

Explicit links to professional aspirations.

Explicit links to public sector roles: teaching, healthcare and governmental responsibilities.